

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

All Are for Thee.

The Tree's early leaf-buds were bursting their brown:
"Shall I take them away?" said the Frost, swooning down.
"No, leave them alone Till the blossoms have grown."
Prayed the Tree, while he trembled from rootlet to crown.

The Tree bore his blossoms, and all the birds sung.
"Shall I take them away?" said the Wind as he swung.
"No, leave them alone Till the berries have grown."
Said the Tree, while his leaflets quivered long.

The Tree bore his fruit in the midsum-mer glow:
Said the bird, "May I gather thy berries now?"
"Yes, all thou canst see: Take them; all are for thee."
Said the Tree, while he bent down his laden boughs low.

Shepherd—Wright.

The wedding of Miss Irving Withers Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Wright, to Mr. Thomas Smith, son of Mr. George W.
Shepherd, of Fredericksburg, Va., was celebrated at 6 P. M., yesterday, in Seventh Street Christian Church, the Rev.
H. H. Barber, pastor of Trinity Episcopal Church, Fredericksburg, assisted by the Rev. Henry Pearce Atkins, of West End Christian Church, officiating.

Church and altar decorations were most effective in painting and altar candlelight. The music was under the direction of Mr. Ernest Cosby, and beautiful and appropriate selections from Lohengrin and Tannhauser were rendered.
The bride was attended by two maids of honor, Miss Josephine Wright, her sister, and Miss Susan Bradley, of Fredericksburg, Va. Mr. George Shepherd, Jr., of Fredericksburg, was the groom's best man, and Mr. Henry George III, of Fredericksburg, was the best man.
The list of guests included Mr. Philip Stern, of Baltimore, Md.; Mr. Flynn Dickson, of Fredericksburg, Md.; Mr. George Shepherd, Jr., of Fredericksburg, Va.; Mr. Mason Smith, of the University of Virginia; Mr. Green Shackelford, of Orange, Va.; and Mr. Thomas Brockenbrough, of Richmond.

The bride entered the church with her sister, Miss Josephine Wright, and was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. H.
George, Jr. She wore a beautiful gown of white satin tulle, trimmed with ancestral point lace that had adorned bridal gowns of several generations in her family. Her veil was held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of white orchids and lilies-of-the-valley.

The maids of honor were attired in pretty toilets of pink sun-plaited mesh line. They had wreaths of pink rosebuds in their hair, and clusters of pink roses for their flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Shepherd left at once after the ceremony for a Northern wedding tour. They will be at home, subsequent to February 1st, at No. 116 Princess Anne Street, Fredericksburg, Va. Guests from a distance to attend the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Philip Stern, of Baltimore; Miss Shepherd and Miss Judith Shepherd, of Fredericksburg; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Smith, of Fredericksburg; Miss Fannie Henry, of Washington, D. C.; and Mrs.
Ernest Woolfolk, of Orange, Va.

Chapter Meeting.

The Richmond Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, held a very large and enthusiastic meeting yesterday morning.
In the absence of the president, Mrs. N.
Y. Randolph, who is ill, the first vice-president, Mrs. J. D. Carr, presided.

The annual reports from the president, secretary and standing committees were heard and were most encouraging. Mrs.
Edgar D. Taylor, of the Soldiers' Home committee, made a specially interesting report of the Christmas entertainment given the veterans on Monday, December 31st. An abundance of good things and many suitable presents were provided for the old soldiers, and the two and reception following gave a great deal of pleasure to the inmates of the home.

Mrs. W. G. Wallace, who was transferred from the Albemarle Chapter, was presented, and was cordially received into membership.

An appeal from the chapter in Carterville, Ga., for assistance in erecting a monument was heard, and a sum voted for this purpose.

Mrs. Vawter, chairman of the certificate committee for the Jamestown building, exhibited copies of the handsome certificates to be sent to all Daughters who contribute to the building fund. She also reported that a liberal sum had been promised or paid to this fund by the chapters in Roanoke, Lynchburg, Petersburg and Chesterfield county.

A letter was read from Mrs. Harriet Haven Pinck of Philadelphia, president of the Pennsylvania Woman's Press Association and a lecturer of great ability and note, in which she offered to give an illustrated lecture on California and Yellowstone Park, under the auspices of the Richmond Chapter. The offer was accepted and the entertainment will probably take place on February 15th or 20th. Mrs. Pinck gives a large part of her time to social work for charitable institutions and other benefits, and will come to Richmond direct from Washing-

Ask Me No More Where Jove Bestows.

By THOMAS CAREW.

Other selections from this author, his portrait, autograph and biographical sketch, have already been printed in this series.

Ask me no more, where Jove bestows, When June is past, the fading rose;
For in your Beauty's orient deep These flowers, as in their causes, sleep.

Ask me no more, whither do stray The golden atoms of the day?
For in pure love Heaven did prepare Those powders to enrich your hair.

Ask me no more, whither doth haste The nightingale, when May is past?
For in your sweet dividing throat She winters and keeps warm her note.

Ask me no more, where those stars 'light, That downwards fall in dead of night?
For in your eyes they sit, and there Fixed become, as in their sphere.

Ask me no more, if east or west The Phoenix builds her spicy nest?
For unto you at last she flies,
And in your fragrant bosom dies.

This series began in The Times-Dispatch Sunday, Oct. 11, 1906. One is published each day.

ton, where she is engaged for several recitals.

A committee, composed of Mrs. W. R.
Vawter, chairman; Mrs. George Lyons, Mrs. C. E. Johnson and Mrs. W. D.
Horton, was appointed to make all arrangements.

It was also decided that the chapter present the bright little comedy, "At Breezy Point," which was so successfully played at the Woman's Club in November, under the direction of Mrs. C. C.
Walker. The comedy is unusually clever and witty, and the same cast which made such a hit at the Woman's Club will play for the chapter. The following committee will have charge of all arrangements: Mrs. E. V. Valentine, Miss Minnie Baughman, Mrs. Alice M.
Tyler and Miss Lucy Clark Atkinson.

Two new members were received into the chapter—Mrs. Elizabeth Ingles and Miss Melvina Elliot.

Letters of sympathy were ordered written to Mrs. Fulton, second vice-president of the Virginia Division, U.
D. C., on the death of her husband, and Miss Helena Peebles on the death of her uncle, Dr. Augustus Lee.

Much regret was expressed at Mrs.
Randolph's illness, and a letter of love and sympathy was sent her, as well as a large bunch of roses.

Charity Benefit.

The Church Hill Auxiliary, Retreat for the Sick, will have a benefit performance at the Stock, both in the afternoon and evening.

The new animals that arrived yesterday will be shown, and a specially attractive program will be prepared, with a number of entirely new features.

The proceeds will go to the charity fund of the auxiliary, which cares for the indigent sick of the East End, and pays for their board and nursing at the Retreat.

In order to secure any advantage to this fund tickets must be purchased from the ladies of the auxiliary or from the drug stores, where they will be placed on sale.

Jones—Gatewood.

Seventh Street Christian Church was the scene of a beautiful wedding last evening at 7 o'clock, when Miss Annie Dugilla Gatewood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Emmette Gatewood, became the bride of Mr. Daniel Selden Jones, of Newport News. The Rev. J. J.
Haley performed the ceremony.

The church was tastefully decorated in white and green. The white satin altar was erected against a background of palms, covering the entire rostrum.
The two wedding marches were used as processional and recessional, and a few

Wilcox—Morris.

Announcement has been made of the approaching marriage of Miss Blanche Morris Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
George A. Smith, to Mr. Daniel Dodson Wilcox, of Petersburg.

The marriage will take place in the home of the bride's parents Wednesday evening, January 23d at 8 o'clock.

Misses Alvey at Home.

Misses Floyd and Lucille Alvey, of No.
813 West Grace Street, will be at home this afternoon from 4:30 to 6:30 o'clock.

Sue Gordon Whist.

The Sue Gordon Whist Club will meet at 4 o'clock this afternoon with Mrs.
Josiah Ryland, at No. 821 West Grace Street.

Elegant Reception.

The Woman's Club will be the scene of one of the most elegant receptions of the midwinter season this afternoon, when Mrs. James Jamieson Hickey and Mrs. James Edmundson Cannon will entertain in honor of Mrs. Stuart Neville Michaux and Mrs. Ivan Malby.

Exquisite decorations will be in pink and green, carried out with palms and pink roses in great profusion.

Mrs. Hickey and Mrs. Cannon will be assisted in receiving by Mrs. Ivan Malby, Mrs. Stuart Michaux and Mrs. Plackney Williamson, of Danville. Mrs. Cannon will wear a lovely gown of pink chiffon, and Mrs. Hickey will be elegantly gowned in white lace.

Mrs. John B. Stuyman and Miss Mary Travers will preside at the punch bowl.
The hostesses will be assisted in entertaining by Mrs. A. J. Montague, Mrs.
Vernon Reed, Mrs. J. C. Harvie, Mrs.
Charles Marchant Graves, Mrs. Addie Chadlin, Virginia Dickens, Emma Brockenridge, Eugene Taylor, Charlotte Miller, Katherine Copeland and Mary Greenwood Johnston.

A large number of invitations have been issued, and the function will be unusually brilliant.

Round Table Meets.

A pleasant discussion of "Dixie After the War," by Mrs. Martha Lockett Avery, occupied the attention of the Literary Round Table of the Woman's Club at its meeting yesterday afternoon.

Miss Claire Guillaume, chairman for the evening, opened the discussion, giving a brief review of some of the incidents related and a general account of the scope of the work. She also quoted the opinion of several well known men of the North and South, which she had compiled from the various reviews.

Some of the ladies related personal experiences of the period covered by the book, thus bringing the trend of the theme to a most realistic light. Several members brought pictures in illustration of the anecdotes related.

The consensus of opinion was that the entire book is of historical accuracy and literary value.

Alumnae to Meet.

The midwinter meeting of the Alumnae Association of the Woman's College will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the college chapel.

Professor J. Calvin Metcalf, of Richmond College, will address the association, and a full attendance is desired.

Mothers' Club Reception.

The Valentine Mothers' Club met yesterday afternoon to make arrangements for their annual reception, to be held on Wednesday evening next at 8:30 o'clock in the clubrooms.

Mr. Charles Hunter will be master of ceremonies. The other speakers have not yet been selected.

New Year's Party.

Mrs. O. B. Eanes gave a most delicious New Year's party. Music and dancing were indulged in until a late hour. Among those dancing were: Miss Robinson Miller with Dr. H. Audick Burke, Miss Florence Wood with Dr. James Curtis, Miss Jessie Hodgins with Mr.
White, Miss Julia Eanes with Dr. William Talley, Miss Mary Talley with Mr.
Tommy A. Burke, Miss Elizabeth Miller with Dr. Bell, Miss Lulu Eanes with Mr. George Hurley Martin, of Charlottesville; Mrs. Dancy and Mr. Henry, of Florida; Dr. William Wilson, Mr. James Smith, Mr. Malcolm Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Norvell.

Others present were: Miss Annie Dowling, of North Carolina, and Mr.
Richard Eanes, Messrs. Russell, Rothwell, Halligan, Crouch and Schobert, and Mr. and Mrs. Womble.

Refreshments were served at 12 o'clock. Mrs. Womble presiding at the punch bowl. A most appropriate toast was rendered by Dr. H. Audick Burke, of Petersburg. After much enjoyment all dispersed at the wee sma' hours of the morning.

SENDS REGRETS.

Governor Swanson Cannot Attend
Lee Memorial Service.

The joint committee on the Lee centenial exercises received yesterday the regrets of Governor Swanson, that he would not be able to be present at the services at St. Paul's Church January 19th, commemorating the one hundredth birthday of General Robert E. Lee.

The Governor has made an engagement to deliver the address at Roanoke, Va., on that date, when the memorial exercises will be similar in character to those in Richmond.

Other State officials will be invited to attend the services at St. Paul's Church in a body. The correspondence of the joint committee indicates a very wide observance of this anniversary occasion as a memorial of the Confederate chieftain.

AFFAIR ADJUSTED.

Mr. Bolton Acknowledges Error and Makes Manly Amend.

The personal altercation in the office of the City Engineer last Friday, in which Assistant Engineer Jackson Bolton struck Dr. E. C. Levy, health officer, has been adjusted satisfactorily to all involved. In discussing with the City Engineer some sanitary matter in which that department desired the co-operation of the Engineer's department, Mr. Bolton became angered and struck Dr. Levy. The latter made no effort to retaliate, but spectators and mutual friends intervened.
Later, Mr. Bolton, upon reflection, regretted his haste and so stated in a manly letter to Dr. Levy, in which he apologized for his action. The apology was accepted and the incident is closed very happily to all concerned.

DATE FIXED.

Stuart Monument Will Be Unveiled on May 30th.

The Stuart Monument Association has fixed the date for the unveiling of the equestrian statue of General J. E. B.
Stuart, at Lombardy and Monument Avenues, for May 30th, 1907. This will be the first day of the Confederate reunion. At a meeting Monday night a partial report of the treasurer of the association was presented. Full details of the unveiling ceremonies will be announced later.

NEW SUNDAY-SCHOOL.

One Organized Sunday in Recently Annexed Territory.

The men's society of the First Presbyterian Church, working in connection with the Hope Memorial Church, organized a new Sunday-school last Sunday in the recently annexed territory at 813 North Twenty-third Street. The financial support is largely provided by the young men of the First Presbyterian Church.
Mr. W. R. Akens will act as superintendent.
There were enrolled on the first Sunday of organization forty-one scholars.

Weekly services will be held by the officers of the Hope Memorial Church on Sundays at 8 P. M. at the territory. The Sunday-school each Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. A number of Presbyterian families live in this community, and rapid progress into an organized church is predicted.

BANK CLERKS.

Mr. Bryan Will Address Meeting on Tuesday Night.

The Richmond Chapter of the American Institute of Bank Clerks will meet on Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the Fraternity Hall, on West Broad Street. An address will be made by Mr. George Bryan, attorney for the First National Bank, and an interesting competition for prizes for proficiency in the use of the Burroughs' adding machine will be had.
The contest was instituted on the initiative of the machine company. There are some swift operators in this city, and the competition will be keen.

Plea for Spaniards.

The Spanish charge d'affaires at Washington has written to Governor Swanson, pleading for the liberty of two Spaniards who have got into trouble in Virginia. One is Antonio Yebra Calvire, who is in the Norfolk jail, serving a term for carrying concealed weapons, and the other is Manuel Lopez, who is in jail in Newport News on some charge which is not very serious. The Governor has not acted on the case.

Governor Invited.

Governor Swanson has been invited to attend the twentieth annual banquet of the Merchants and Manufacturers Association of Baltimore on January 29th.
The Governor finds that engagements here will prevent his attendance.

Woodland Club Entertains.

The Woodland Glen Social Club entertained its members and their friends at a delightful social Friday night. The affair was given at the Fairmont Town Hall, and was greatly enjoyed.

After the well-rendered program delicious refreshments were served in continuous dance. Those present were Misses Allen Ford, Ella Felvey, Madeline Boze, Louise Bryant, Irene Kinsey, Minnie Burkert, Adeline Dornich, Rosa Gras-
